  - (c) the decisions taken and business dealt with at Management Committee meetings and general meetings; and
- 17.2 Minutes of proceedings at a meeting shall be signed by the chairperson of the meeting or by the chairperson of the next succeeding meeting.
- 17.3 The secretary shall provide to the secretary of each Division Association the draft minutes of the Management Committee within 30 days following any meeting of the Management Committee.
- 17.4 The secretary shall ensure that all reporting is submitted to NSW Fair Trading as required.

18 Treasurer

- 18.1 It is the duty of the treasurer to ensure that:
- (a) all money due to AERA is collected and received and that all payments authorised by AERA are made;
  - (b) correct books and accounts are kept showing the financial affairs of AERA including full details of all receipts and expenditures connected with the activities of AERA;
  - (c) a true copy of the audited financial report of AERA for the immediate past Membership Year is provided to the secretary of each Division Association no later than 14 days before the Annual General Meeting.

19 Removal of Management Committee Member

- 19.1 In exceptional circumstances, AERA in general meeting may by special resolution remove any member of the committee from the office of member before the expiration of the member's term of office and may request the Division Association by which the person was appointed to appoint another person to hold office until the expiration of the term of office of the member so removed.
- 19.2 If a member of the committee to whom a proposed resolution referred to in Clause 19.1 relates makes representations in writing to the secretary or president (not exceeding a reasonable length) the secretary or the president shall send a copy of the representations to each Delegate of AERA prior to the meeting at which the resolution is considered.

20 Management Committee Meetings and Quorum

- 20.1 The Management Committee shall meet at least twice in each period of 12 months at such place and time and in the manner as the Management Committee may determine.
- 20.2 Written or electronic notice of a meeting of the Management Committee must be given by the secretary to each member of the Management Committee at least 48 hours (or such other period as may be unanimously agreed on by the members of the committee) before the time appointed for the holding of the meeting.
- 20.3 Where the majority of the total number of members of the Management Committee request of the secretary in writing an additional meeting of the Management Committee an additional meeting shall be convened by the president;
- 20.4 Any request to convene an additional meeting of the Management Committee shall specify the precise nature of the business to be transacted at that meeting.
- 20.5 Any 5 members of the Management Committee constitute a quorum for the transaction of the business of a meeting of the committee.
- 20.6 No business shall be transacted by the Management Committee unless a quorum is present and if within one hour of the time appointed for the meeting a quorum is not present the meeting shall be postponed to a place, time and date as determined by a majority of the members of the Management Committee present at that time.
- 20.7 At a meeting of the Management Committee:
  - (a) the president or, in the president's absence, the vice-president chosen by the members present at the meeting shall preside; or
  - (b) if the president and the vice-president are absent or unwilling to act, such one of the remaining members of the Management Committee as may be chosen by the members present at the meeting shall preside.
- 20.8 The chairperson of a meeting of the Management Committee at which a quorum is present may, with the consent of the majority of the Management Committee members present at the meeting, adjourn the meeting from time to time and place to place, but no business shall be transacted at an adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting at which the adjournment took place.
- 20.9 Where a meeting of the Management Committee is adjourned for 14 days or more, the secretary shall give written or oral notice of the adjourned meeting to each Division Association secretary stating the place, date and time of the meeting and the nature of the business to be transacted at the meeting.

20.10 Except as provided in clause 20.9, notice of an adjournment of a meeting of a Management Committee or of the business to be transacted at an adjourned meeting is not required to be given.

21 Use of technology at Management Committee meetings

21.1 A Management Committee meeting may be held at 2 or more venues using any technology approved by the committee that gives each committee member an equitable opportunity to participate.

21.2 A Management Committee member who participates in a committee meeting using that technology is taken to be present at the meeting and, if the member votes at the meeting, is taken to have voted in person.

22 Delegation to Sub-Committees

22.1 The Management Committee may, by instrument in writing, delegate to one or more sub-Committees (consisting of such persons as the Management Committee thinks fit) the exercise of such of the functions of the Management Committee as are specified in the instrument, other than:

- (a) this power of delegation; and
- (b) a function which is a duty imposed on the Management Committee by the Act or by any other law.

22.2 A function the exercise of which has been delegated to a sub-Committee under this rule may, while the delegation remains unrevoked, be exercised from time to time by the sub-Committee in accordance with the terms of the delegation.

22.3 A delegation under this section may be made subject to such conditions or limitations as to the exercise of any function of the subject thereof, or as to time or circumstances, as may be specified in the instrument of delegation.

22.4 Notwithstanding any delegation under this rule, the Management Committee may continue to exercise any function delegated.

22.5 Any act or thing done or suffered by a sub-Committee acting in the exercise of a delegation under this rule has the same force and effect as it would have if it had been done or suffered by the Management Committee.

22.6 The Management Committee may, by instrument in writing, revoke wholly or in part any delegation under this rule.

22.7 A sub-Committee may meet and adjourn as it thinks proper within its Terms of Reference.

22.8 A co-ordinator for each sub-Committee shall be appointed by the Management Committee.

23 Voting at Management Committee Meetings

23.1 Questions arising at a meeting of the Management Committee or of any sub-Committee are to be determined by a majority of the votes of members of the Committee or sub-Committee present at the meeting.

23.2 Each member of the Management Committee has one vote.

23.3 In the event of an equality of votes on any question, then the question shall be deemed to be decided in the negative.

23.4 Proxy votes are permitted at meetings of the Management Committee

24 Annual General Meetings

24.1 The annual general meeting of AERA shall, subject to the Act and to this Constitution, be convened at such place and time as the Management Committee thinks fit and within 6 months of the end of the Financial Year.

24.2 The business of an annual general meeting shall be:

- (a) to confirm the minutes of the last preceding annual general meeting and of any special meeting held since that meeting;
- (b) to receive from the Management Committee reports upon the activities of AERA during the last preceding financial year;
- (c) to receive and consider the audited financial statement required to be submitted to members pursuant to the Act;
- (d) endorse the appointment of the Management Committee;
- (e) to appoint a public officer; and
- (f) to appoint an auditor;
- (g) to approve nominations for Honorary membership of AERA; and
- (h) to deal with business brought to the meeting by a Division Association as per clause 24.5.”.

24.3 An annual general meeting shall be specified as such in the notice convening it.

24.4 The secretary shall, at least 28 days before the date fixed for the holding of the annual general meeting, cause to be sent by such means as determined by the Management Committee to each Division Association secretary a notice specifying the place, date and time of the meeting and the nature of the business proposed to be transacted at the meeting

- 24.5 No business other than that specified in the notice convening the annual general meeting shall be transacted at the meeting.
- 24.6 A Division Association desiring to bring any business before the annual general meeting shall give notice in writing of that business to the secretary who shall include that business in the next notice calling an annual general meeting given after receipt of the notice from the member.
- 24.7 A Quorum of AERA for the transaction of the business at the annual general meeting, attending by delegate or by proxy, shall be one more than one half of the total number of votes eligible to be cast at the annual general meeting.
- 24.8 No item of business shall be transacted at the annual general meeting unless a quorum of members entitled under these rules to vote is present in person or by proxy during the time the meeting is considering that item.

25 Voting at Annual and Special General Meetings

- 25.1 Each Division Association shall be entitled to a number of votes calculated as follows:
  - a) 1 vote for each 100 members (or part thereof) of each Division Association to a maximum of 5 votes
  - b) based on the maximum number of voting members each Division Association had the preceding year.
- 25.2 Such votes shall be cast by the appointed Delegates for the Division Association or proxies.
- 25.3 A question arising at a General Meeting of AERA is to be determined by:
  - (a) a show of hands, or
  - (b) vote cast verbally, or
  - (c) if on the motion of the chairperson or if 3 or more Delegates or proxies present at the meeting decide that the question should be determined by a written ballot, or
- 25.4 If the question is to be determined by a show of hands or vote cast verbally a declaration by the chairperson that a resolution has, on a show of hands or vote cast verbally, been carried or carried unanimously or carried by a particular majority or lost, or an entry to that effect in the minutes of AERA, is evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against that resolution.

- 25.5 Where a written ballot is demanded at a general meeting, the ballot shall be taken-
- (a) immediately in the case of a written ballot which related to the election of the chairperson of the meeting or to the question of an adjournment; or
  - (b) in any other case, in such manner and at such time before the close of the meeting as the chairperson directs, and the resolution of the written ballot on the matter shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting on that matter.

26 Presiding Member of General Meetings

- 26.1 The president or, in the president's absence, the vice-president shall preside as chairperson at each general meeting of AERA.
- 26.2 If the president or the vice-president chosen by the Management Committee are absent from a General Meeting or are unwilling to act, the members of the Management Committee present shall elect one of their number to preside as chairperson at the general meeting.

27 Procedure at and Postponement of General Meetings

- 27.1 At a general meeting the presiding officer shall be determined in accordance with clause 26.
- 27.2 If within one hour after the appointed time for the commencement of a general meeting a quorum is not present, the meeting shall be postponed to a place, time and date as determined by a simple majority of the members of the Management Committee present at that time.
- 27.3 Where a general meeting is postponed, the secretary shall give written or oral notice of the postponement of the meeting to each member of AERA stating the place, date and time of the meeting and the nature of the business to be transacted at the meeting.
- 27.4 Delegates may attend a general meeting by such form of telecommunication as approved by the Management Committee.

28 Special General Meetings

- 28.1 The Management Committee may, whenever it decides to do so, convene a Special General Meeting of AERA.
- 28.2 The secretary shall, on the requisition in writing of not less than three Division Associations, convene a Special General Meeting of AERA.
- 28.3 A requisition for a Special General Meeting:
- (a) shall state the purpose or purposes of the meeting;
  - (b) shall be signed by the secretaries making the requisitions;
  - (c) shall be lodged with the secretary of AERA; and
  - (d) may consist of several documents in a similar form, each signed by the Division Association secretary making the requisition.
- 28.4 If the secretary of AERA fails to convene a Special General Meeting to be held within 60 days after the date on which a valid requisition for the meeting is lodged with the secretary, any one or more of the Division Associations who made the requisition may convene a Special General Meeting to be held not later than 90 days after that date.
- 28.5 A Special General Meeting convened as referred to in clause 28.4 above, shall be convened as early as is practical in the same manner as the annual general meeting is convened.
- 28.6 The secretary shall, at least 28 days before the date fixed for the holding of a Special General Meeting, cause to be sent by such means as determined by the Management Committee to each Division Association at the member's official address, a notice specifying the place, date and time of the meeting and the nature of the business proposed to be transacted at the meeting.
- 28.7 No business other than that specified in the notice convening the Special General Meeting shall be transacted at the Special General Meeting.
- 28.8 A quorum for the transaction of business at a Special General Meeting shall be not less than 75 per cent of the total number of Delegates eligible to cast votes at the Special General Meeting.

- 29.1 AERA may hold an electronic ballot (as the Management Committee determines) to determine any issue or proposal, other than a disciplinary appeal.
- 29.2 An electronic ballot is to be conducted in accordance with the By-Laws or if no By-Laws have been created by the Management Committee in accordance with the Act.

30 Use of technology at general meetings

- 30.1 A general meeting may be held at two or more venues using any technology approved by the Management Committee that gives each of the Delegates equitable opportunity to participate.
- 30.2 A Delegate who participates in a general meeting using that technology is taken to be present at the meeting and, if the member votes at the meeting, is taken to have voted in person.

31 Special Resolutions

- 31.1 A special resolution may only be passed by AERA in accordance with the Act as follows:
  - (a) at a general meeting of AERA of which notice has been given to its members no later than 21 days before the date on which the meeting is held; or
  - (b) in an electronic ballot conducted by AERA; or
  - (c) in such other manner as the Secretary (in this case meaning the Commissioner for Fair Trading or Departmental Secretary) may direct; or
  - (d) if it is passed by a majority of at least 75% of the votes cast by members of AERA who, under this Constitution, are entitled to vote in person or by proxy, on the proposed resolution.
- 31.2 A notice referred to in clause 31.1(a) must include the terms of the resolution and a statement to the effect that the resolution is intended to be passed as a special resolution.
- 31.3 An electronic ballot referred to clause 31.1(b) may only be conducted in relation to resolutions of a kind that this Constitution permits to be voted on by means of an electronic ballot and must be conducted in accordance with By-Law created by the Management Committee for the holding of Electronic Ballots.
- 31.4 A direction under clause 31.1(c) may not be given unless the Secretary (in this case meaning the Commissioner for Fair Trading or Departmental Secretary) is satisfied that, in the circumstances, it is impracticable to require votes to be cast in the manner provided by clause 31.1(a) or 31.1(b).

32 By-Laws

32.1 The Management Committee may make such By Laws for the administration of AERA and the relationship with the Division Associations as it sees fit from time to time provided that those By-Laws are not inconsistent with this Constitution. Such By- Laws shall be published to the Members of AERA who are bound by these By- Laws.

33 Insurance

33.1 AERA shall effect and maintain public liability and directors' liability insurance, and may effect and maintain other insurance as the Committee of Management thinks fit.

34 Funds – Source

34.1 The funds of AERA shall be derived from levies on Division Associations, entrance fees and annual subscriptions of members, donations and, subject to any resolution passed by the Management Committee, such other sources as the Management Committee determines.

34.2 Levies on Division Associations shall be proportional to the membership of each Division Association.

34.3 All money received by AERA shall be deposited as soon as practicable and without deduction to the credit of AERA's bank account.

34.4 AERA shall, as soon as practicable after receiving any money, issue an appropriate receipt.

35 Funds – Management

35.1 Subject to any resolution passed by AERA at a Special General Meeting, the funds of AERA shall be used in pursuance of the objects of AERA in such manner as the Management Committee determines.

35.2 All cheques, drafts, bills of exchange, promissory notes and other negotiable instruments shall be signed by any 2 members of the Management Committee, being members authorised to do so by the Management Committee.

35.3 The financial affairs of AERA may be managed by electronic means in such manner as the committee determines.

36 Alterations of this Constitution

36.1 Subject to the Act, this Constitution may be altered, rescinded or added to only by a special resolution passed at a general meeting of AERA.

37 Custody and Books

37.1 Except as otherwise provided by this Constitution, the Public Officer shall keep in his or her custody or under his or her control all records, books and other documents relating to AERA.
